Faces Places (2017) PG

Directed by JR and Agnes Varda
France – English subtitles – 94 minutes

89-year-old Agnes Varda, a leading filmmaker of the French New Wave, and JR, a 33-year-old French photographer and muralist, teamed up to co-direct this enchanting road movie, which was nominated for the 2018 Best Documentary Academy Award. Together they travel around the villages of France meeting locals, learning their stories, and producing epic-size portraits of them which they prominently display on buildings. The film documents these heart-warming encounters as well as the unlikely friendship they formed along the way.

Oranges and Sunshine (2011) R

Directed by Jim Loach
UK/Australia – English – 105 minutes

This film documents the inspiring story of Margaret Humphreys, a social worker from Nottingham, England, who, in the 1980s, uncovered one of the most significant social scandals in recent times: the organized deportation of children in care from the United Kingdom to Australia. Almost single-handedly, against overwhelming odds, Margaret reunited thousands of families, brought authorities to account and drew worldwide attention to an extraordinary miscarriage of justice. Emily Watson gives an award-winning performance.

Don't let this title throw you off! "Tel Aviv on Fire" is a comedy that crosses borders and breaks boundaries. Salam, an inexperienced young Palestinian man, becomes a writer on a popular soap opera after a chance meeting with an Israeli soldier. His creative career is on the rise until the soldier and the show's financial backers disagree about how the show should end, and Salam is caught in the middle. The film and leading actor have collected many Film Festival awards.
